

Calling for Genocide in Jesus' Name

THE LIE

Christian influencers like Candace Owens who obsessively criticize Israel are simply standing against genocide.

THE TRUTH

Self-styled Christian influencers like Candace Owens are pro-genocide when the victims are Jews in Israel. What they oppose is Jews defending themselves.

BACKGROUND

- Prominent Christian Right-wing voices like Candace Owens, Dan Bilzerian, Carrie Prejean Boller, and Harrison H. Smith have spent years accusing Israel of “genocide” in Gaza—claiming it offends their Christian faith and moral opposition to genocide.

TRUTH EXPLAINED

- Candace Owens: Owens presents herself as a devout Christian, frequently proclaiming “Christ is King” while condemning Israel’s actions in Gaza as a “disgraceful” genocide. On April 8, 2026, Candace Owens posted on X: “There will never be peace in the world while Israel exists,” directly calling for the elimination of the Jewish state. - Dan Bilzerian: Self-proclaimed proud Christian Dan Bilzerian routinely accuses Israel of perpetrating genocide in Gaza. On March 4, 2026, he stated: “Honestly, the only real battle in the world today that I see worth fighting is exterminating Israel. I would sign up tomorrow and go put boots on the ground and go kill Israelis. That would be a great day for me.” A month later, Bilzerian launched a congressional campaign to challenge Rep. Randy Fine (R-FL) in Florida’s 6th Congressional District. (X), (The Hill)
- Carrie Prejean Boller: Catholic influencer Carrie Prejean Boller obsessively criticizes Israel “as a Catholic,” repeatedly urging Christians to denounce Israel over the so-called “Gaza genocide.” On April 10, 2026, she publicly endorsed Bilzerian and his genocidal views, just two days after agreeing with him that “Jewish supremacists” are America’s greatest problem. - Harrison H. Smith: Harrison H. Smith, host of “The War Room” on InfoWars, displays a cross by his name on X to signal his Christian identity. On April 7, 2026, he bluntly tweeted: “Israel must be destroyed.” (X)
- Ignored Real Genocides: These influencers and hosts continue to push the debunked “Gaza genocide” narrative while pointedly ignoring actual ongoing genocides against Christians in places like Nigeria and Syria, carried out by Islamist groups. ### QUOTES

- “I can’t be Christian and not be completely connected to the Jewish people. Our entire faith is built on the foundation of Judaism. God blesses those who bless Jews and curses those who curse Jews.” – US Ambassador Mike Huckabee
